

The Sherry L. Reames Graduate Student Travel Award for Hagiographical Studies

Named in honor of the beloved founder and long-time leader of the Society, the award now provides up to $1000 to be used toward registration, travel, lodging, and meals to present a paper at the International Congress on Medieval Studies, held annually at Western Michigan University in Kalamazoo, MI. The winners will be granted a free two-year membership in the Hagiography Society.

Eligibility

Students who are Hagiography Society members and enrolled in a graduate program (anywhere in the world) are eligible to apply if their paper, on a topic involving hagiography, has been accepted for inclusion on a regular panel (not a round table or other format) in the program of the International Congress on Medieval Studies in Kalamazoo, MI, at the time of application. They are also expected to attend the annual Hagiography Society Business Meeting held at the International Congress on Medieval Studies.

Application

Please submit this form with a current curriculum vitae (combined in a single PDF with your last name in the document name) by November 15 to the Secretary / Treasurer of the Hagiography Society (secretary@hagiographysociety.org).

Name:

University:

Department/program:

Year in program:

Are you a member of the Hagiography Society? ( Y / N )

Have you applied for or received other funding to present this paper (registration, travel, lodging, and/or meals; specify amounts)?

Are you eligible for travel funding from your university to present this paper, and if so, how much?

Title of accepted paper:

Panel title:

Abstract of accepted paper:

How does this paper fit into your scholarly trajectory?

continued...

Budget

From where (city, state/province, country) will you be traveling?

Please indicate your projected expenses (in US dollars) in the table below:

Transportation
Hotel
Meals
Registration
TOTAL	